“The students I work with have shown me that being kind isn’t that hard.”
Charla, 7th Grade

“Our leadership class is not that hard, you just have to be yourself, be nice and kind to everyone.”
Emir, 8th Grade

“Our students helped me realize that even though someone may seem different, they have just the same amount of potential as anyone else.”
Vincia, 7th Grade

“I’ve become more gentle and observing and just a better person. I really enjoyed being in leadership.”
Jazlyn, 7th Grade

“Each person has their own special way of thinking and living. It’s a gift of being able to see and interpret the world differently. If everyone were to think the same then it wouldn’t be much fun.”
Samaah, 8th Grade

“The most important thing that can be learned about autism is that people with autism are more like us than you think.”
Ryan, 7th Grade
“I loved being in leadership, it is my favorite class. I have learned a lot from helping our students. I have learned to be patient and understanding. It makes me happy and proud to work and help them.”

Dylan, 7th Grade

“Just because someone has a life issue or disability it doesn’t define them. We are all equal and we are all human.”

Alexis, 7th Grade
